TRBA OFFICER AND DIRECTOR REPORTS

President Jeff Tondre

Howdy,

I want to begin by recognizing the strong showing by our Texas exhibitors at the 2025 ARBA Convention. It was great to hear about the many wins earned by members of our Texas rabbit community, which are outlined elsewhere in this newsletter. Our Texas youth, in particular, did an outstanding job representing the state in the Youth Contests under the guidance of “Coach Jen.” Their hard work and commitment continue to make us proud.

The 2025 TRBA Fall Show truly ran like a well-oiled machine. Thank you to everyone who came out to support it. As many of you know, this is our annual TRBA Benefit Show, and the funds raised help support many of the Association’s activities throughout the year. The success of this show is a direct result of strong volunteer support and participation, and it does not go unnoticed.

This year also brought loss to our TRBA family. We lost several significant personalities in 2025, and most recently, our thoughts and prayers are with the Floyd family. Moments like these remind us how close-knit this organization truly is and how much the people in it matter.

As a reminder, TRBA affiliations for all state clubs are due at the end of the year. Club Secretaries, please be sure to get those submitted to Katie as soon as possible so we can start the new year on solid footing.

Looking ahead to 2026, I encourage everyone to obtain a copy of the new Standards of Perfection and spend some time reviewing it. This edition includes more changes than we have seen in quite some time. I know I plan to do a thorough review before stepping behind the judging table in the coming year.

TRBA OFFICER AND DIRECTOR REPORTS

Planning for 2026 is already well underway. State Show Weekend is scheduled for March 20–22, 2026, in Belton, along with the Youth Contest qualifying opportunity for the 2026 ARBA Convention in Reno. Entries will be due in early March. Please watch for the “Save the Date” flyer included in this newsletter, with additional details to be posted on the TRBA website.

Anyone who has served on a show committee knows that one of the most challenging tasks is selecting awards while maintaining a balanced budget. This year, we are trying something new by requesting award proposals from vendors rather than using our traditional approach. Details are included in this newsletter, and I look forward to seeing what our creative community brings forward.

TRBA always needs volunteers to help spread the workload. Whether you can give an hour or two at a show, or you are interested in getting more involved on a larger scale, please reach out to me. We will find a role that fits your time and interests.

Plans are in place to host the Cajuns and Cowboys Show over Labor Day weekend in Longview, and we are currently working through the building contract for the 2026 TRBA Benefit Show, which is expected to remain in Killeen the first weekend of December. Additionally, three breed national shows are slated to be held in Texas this spring. I strongly encourage everyone to support these events, as discussions are already underway for future breed nationals in the state.

I will close by emphasizing that the backbone of our hobby is our local all-breed clubs. These clubs need volunteer support just as much as the state and national organizations do. We certainly want you to be members of ARBA and TRBA, but if you are not an active member of a local all-breed club, I would encourage you to ask yourself why not. To everyone, I wish you a prosperous New Year, and I look forward to seeing you down the road at a show.

Respectfully,
Jeff Tondre.

Vice President- John Terry

As we are getting ready for the holiday season. It is a great time to reflect on what you have to be grateful for. Texas has a lot of quality people who put on numerous shows. And it is all mostly volunteer work. Be thankful for the many opportunities we get to show rabbits and not leave our own state even though Texas is as big as several states put together lol.

Spring Nationals will be here before you know it. It always fun when you spend a good part of the day or days tattooing for potential future show animals. Three nationals that will be in our own state are the Netherland Dwarfs, Satin, Mini Satin and mini rex. All three are great clubs with tons of knowledge in the rabbit world. Want to get a feel for a national show? Step up and volunteer to help one of the three club hosting in Texas. I know any of the clubs would be glad for anyone willing to provide some assistance. And in between all that is 3 majors show and our state show to boot. Get in and pitch in wherever you can help.

On final note before getting this to the editor. Love your neighbors and friends. Remember why we celebrate the holiday. Life can be short and we don't always get a chance to say what we want to say. Merry Christmas and be blessed .
Love from the Terrys.

Secretary- - Katie Finch

Happy New Year!

The Finch House is growing and shifting and with it comes different foci. I am still active in the secretary role, but my family must come first. It may take me a little longer than in the past to process some items as they come in.

As we enter the new year, my wish for all of our members is to have health, joy, and presence. It is too easy in this world to get caught in the cycle of Go-Go-Go - sometimes (ME TOO!!!) we need to be reminded to slow down a bit.

This fall was difficult. Hard. Rough. We almost lost my daughter in October. At the beginning of November, we acquired 3 additional bonus family members, bringing our ranks to 10 (requiring 2 vehicles for all family outings). On Thanksgiving, we lost a dear friend/cornerstone in the rabbit hobby. Emotions have been high, cores have been shaken, and the rawness of life has been felt.

The steadfastness of God's presence has been our sustenance and the presence of rabbit friends/family has been crucial to our continuation of the hobby. My daughter has made the extremely tough decision to step back for a while (a decision made with many tears) and my eldest is excited for what that means for his own barn space (go figure - sibling love). Throughout all of our experiences this fall, the presence of our friends and family (because lets be real - that's what you are) has meant the world to us. Thank you, from the bottom of my heart. Thank you for your love, kind words, smiles, hugs, gifts, words of wisdom, and the occasional "Gibbs slap."

I truly hope this new year is a fresh beginning with health, wisdom, nest boxes full of BIS winners, joy, and God's presence.

Treasurer- Gay Sparks

Hello to All,

This issue will come out after the holidays, so I hope everyone had a nice time with family and friends. Ours will be small this year by choice. I feel that we all need some “me” time for ourselves and I am going to take some for myself. I am still available if needed but nothing extra right now.

I see that most of you made the deadline for FWSSR. I realize the deadline is more than 6 weeks prior to the show. The data won't be available to me until after Jan. 1. Any changes will be allowed, once your confirmation sheets are sent. After that, NO breed changes, variety, class and sex are allowed at no charge until 1 week before the show.

Changes are allowed at check in for a fee.

State show is our next event. Please volunteer to help out. This show is a massive undertaking and it takes all of us to make it work. Contact Kate, Jeff or Don and let them know you are available for a shift. We always need table help, raffle help, and office help. There's a job for everyone. The 3rd quarter report is in this issue. If you have any questions, please just ask. I am available to answer any questions.

Please pray for our families who have lost loved ones and pray for our troops who protect our freedoms.

See ya,
Gay

TRBA Family,

I am sure that we have all tried to make the same deal with the year 2025, for it to pass and us to just survive. It is finally December. Thank heavens!

The ARBA convention in Indy definitely helped all of us get our steps in. We had several big winners from Texas. It was so exciting for the Rex to win best in show. I saw her when Judge Josh Humphries pulled her out in the class and placed her in a holding coop. That is a definite advantage of clerking at convention! You get to see pretty rabbits up close and personal.

The TRBA Fall Show was decently attended. As always, our out of state judges complimented having adequate table space, good hotel rooms, and the exhibitors being mannerly. Plans for the state show are starting. Please make plans to attend.

TRBA OFFICER AND DIRECTOR REPORTS

Director- Kayla Strain

These past few months have absolutely flown by! How are we already wrapping up the 2025 show year? I hope this season has been kind to you and your family. And if it hasn't, please know that your rabbit community stands with you. We're always ready to circle around our friends with love, support, and prayers. My family has felt that kindness firsthand recently, and I know many others who have been touched by challenges this year truly appreciate the outpouring of support from this amazing group. My daughter and I attended our very first Convention in November, right alongside so many of you. It was everything I hoped for and so much more—I loved every minute of it. I'm grateful I got to spend time with our Texas friends and meet new faces from across the country. And let me just say: the pride I felt watching our youth compete, shine in contests, and earn some incredible show wins was next-level. "Proud to be Team Texas" doesn't even begin to cover it.

I saw parents stepping up to help wherever they were needed. I watched youth encouraging one another, helping exhibitors, and making new friendships that will likely last far beyond the show tables. I saw TRBA staff and volunteers guiding kids with patience and heart, even when they were exhausted themselves. Thank you to every single person who poured time, energy, and love into making Convention such an unforgettable experience.

As we roll into what's sure to be a fast and furious 2026 show season, let's take a moment to remember that not everyone who started the journey with us is still here. Many families are learning their "new normal," and that can be tough. So let's honor them by holding tight to what makes this community so special. Remember: this is a hobby and a passion meant to be shared. Invite in the newcomers. Encourage the shy ones. Celebrate loudly, support generously, and love big. Make sure no one leaves the barn without knowing you were happy to see them. Here's to 2026—may the bunnies shine on every show table and may the memories be even better than the ribbons.

TRBA OFFICER AND DIRECTOR REPORTS

Director- Hugh Bolton

TRBA Family,

Rabbits is something that has brought us all together. What else do we all have in common? I would venture to say it is relationships. As I addressed this article I did so to “Family”. That is how I choose to view our Association, as a family. The 2025 year has been hard on our family. We lost two women whose ties run deep in the Texas Rabbit Community, Kellie Tondre and Kristen Chisum Floyd. There may be others of our community that are no longer with us that I am not thinking of at the moment, please forgive me. Both of these individuals left us far too early and my heart breaks for those that love these two ladies.

This Fall my son, Cole, and I attended something like a retreat. At our initial gathering the leader began to pat his chest and ask if we knew what that was. After several incorrect guesses he shared with us that it represents your heart beats. With a pause he then informed us in no uncertain terms, “You have been given a limited number of them.” Frequently throughout the weekend he would refer back to that imagery by patting his chest. He would remark on the finite number of heart beats we are each given. He then encouraged us to invest and spend our heart beats wisely. He encouraged us to spend our heart beats doing things that matter, spending them with people who matter. He went on to state it in another way and firmly told us, “Don’t waste them.” Just let that sit there a second. “Don’t waste them.” Ponder on that. Let that soak in. What does that mean to you? “Don’t waste them.”

TRBA OFFICER AND DIRECTOR REPORTS

If you did not stop reading and take a moment to think about that, you are missing out. You have been given a limited number of heart beats. Invest them with those that you care about, your spouse, your children, your parents/grandparents, uncles and aunts, sisters and brothers. Your rabbit “family” your other friends. Don’t waste your heart beats.

There is a book I read each year at our PK graduation by Karen Kingsbury titled Let Me Hold You Longer. The book reminds the reader that we are all too often looking at what is next, we miss what is now and then the now is past and will never be again and we missed it. I humbly request you spend your heart beats wisely, don’t waste them. Let those you care about know how you feel with your words, actions and deeds. At your next rabbit show turn to your friend you always look forward to seeing and tell them in no uncertain terms, “I am thankful for you.”

Rabbit family, I am thankful for you.

Lone Star Talk

Hi all. In my last article, I said "glad to get the summertime blues in the rearview mirror". Well I was certainly wrong in those regards. Summer lasted until mid November here in west Texas with temps well into the 90s. That was not the norm, so I will be a little more hesitant to call the end of summer from now on.

While writing this, the 2025 convention is behind us and I am happy to report that breeders in this region represented well with a good number of placements in the top five of their respective classes.

It has been some time since we had a Checkered Giant specialty club in my area but the Tornado Alley Checkered Giant Rabbit Regional Specialty Club had been formed and has already had its first shows. There were 37 rabbits shown with four exhibitors at the first of November. There seems to be some good excitement by the breeders in these parts and we are excited to be hosting the 2027 Annual. We will be providing more information in this next years bulletins and through the clubs facebook page thanks to my bride, she said she can make that happen.

TRBA OFFICER AND DIRECTOR REPORTS

Director- Eric Breanna - "EB"

It would not seem right, not to share my latest encounter in my barn. We had been to Hereford, Texas for a show and had the good fortune to be able to arrive at the house just at dusk. This was my maiden voyage for my new rabbit wagon (Toyota Sienna), and upon pulling up to the barn there were not lights on in the barn. Normally I use a light but in haste I decided to just run in and turn on the lights. About 5 steps into my barn I felt a unnatural feeling under my right foot. I had stepped in the middle of the back of a 4 foot long rattlesnake. I was unaware that I was able to pull my knees up to my chin and still move forward. I ran to the light and turned it on and immediately examined myself and noticed all was well and I had not been harmed. I can not say that about my undergarments. While quite shaky I hollered at my bride and son to obtain something to diffuse the intruder. We were able to remove his harmful side and all was well. I must be living an acceptable life to be blessed with not getting stuck. I might should have left the visitor, evidently he was hunting a rat because the next time i went to get into my new rabbit wagon, the engine lights came on. Oh no. After my mechanic looked at he said that a rat had chew many of my wires. What ya gonna do???

Best to you all, EB

STATE SHOW 2026 – Application Deadline February 25

BASIC FORMATTING

FONT: Several most popular (and readable) fonts include: Arial, Calibri, Tahoma, Times New Roman and Verdana. Using one of these will help make the application more readable.

FONT SIZE: Business standards, as well as these contests, use 10-point or 12-point type.

PAGE MARGINS: Margins should be between ½ inch and 1½ inches, with the most common size being 1 inch.

STYLE: The indiscriminate use and overuse of font styles (bold, italic, underline, etc.) serves to diminish your writing. Some use can be helpful, but be careful only to use it when necessary.

QUESTIONS: Make sure you copy the question above your answer.

It reminds the scorers of what you have been asked.

SCORING

SCORING: There will be two royalty graders for each division. They are provided with a rubric modeled after the points spread of ARBA royalty and are informed to provide constructive feedback. Please remember that the applications are one component of the royalty contest. The grand total score of all components determines the Royalty winner.

This information is presented in order for applicants to take best advantage of the application platform to express themselves and their project. This is not an all-inclusive list of tips, nor is it intended to be a list of requirements, though some of these tips are designed to help applicants understand the specific requirements necessary to create a fair and manageable contest.

APPLICATION TIPS

DEADLINES: Pay attention to deadlines. Late applications will sabotage your effort.

SUBMITTING APPLICATIONS: Do not send your applications in any format other than PDF. The photo should be a separate attachment.

READ THE QUESTIONS: Make sure you answer the question asked! You can talk about other things as well, but the most common error is not answering the questions asked.

CLARITY: Be clear and concise. Answer the question fully, but do not rely on an unnecessary volume of words to make the point that you want to make just to fill up space for an answer to one of the questions you have been asked, like this tip is doing! Don't use two lines if only one is needed.

GRAMMAR: Using good grammar and spelling tells the judge you are serious and careful. Ask a teacher or other adult to help you proofread your application.

ORDER OF QUESTIONS: Occasionally, the order of questions will change from year to year. Make sure you use the current year's questions. It is always helpful to start with your application from last year, but make sure you properly edit for the current year.

PHOTOS: Pictures tell a lot about you and your project. Select them carefully and size them appropriately to tell the story. Include captions so the judges know what they are looking at and why. However, not all answers will lend themselves to being helped by a picture. Concise use of pictures can be just as important as concise use of language. Remember to include a self-portrait (similar to a school photo) that is a component of your score and will be included on royalty posters.

ACCURATE INFORMATION: Honesty is, as always, the best policy. Be mindful of the fact that scorers, while remaining anonymous, may be able to verify the claims made in your application. You do not want to get caught embellishing your activities or accomplishments.
