TRBA Officer & Director Reports

President Teresa DeSautell

Hello from windy West Texas!

A lot is happening across the great state of Texas this year! Fall/winter shows are going strong and entry numbers seem strong. Club secretaries are working hard to get your entry in and after the show to get your show reports back to you. I have seen a lot of conversations on social media lately about the timeliness of show reports. We need to be patient...most, if not all club secretaries VOLUNTEER to secretary. They are full time employees, full time parents, husbands and wives. ARBA rules state that they have 30 days from the completion of a show to send back reports. If you get yours before that date consider yourself lucky!

Have you considered volunteering at a club near you? It's like any organization, many people want the benefits of what the organization offers but like to sit back in their campgrounds and enjoy the festivities. I'm guilty of it myself. Sometimes, I just want to go to the show to have a good time, talk with my friends, and show the rabbits. At the end of the show, we always have a long way to drive back home in a short period of time and I can always validate why I don't stay around and help. These clubs need help! It doesn't get set up or taken down easily! Even if you just write for a few breeds, help pick up the trash in your own area, and help load a few items it is a bonus for the club. Better still become actively involved in the club, that way you can have more control over what happens at the show. We are seeing clubs shut down in recent years because of lack of help. I for one am always looking for a show NEAR ME that I can attend and I'm willing to drive a good distance to show because the shows usually are at least 6 hours from where I live. I'm fully supportive of any club(s) that are starting up a new club. I wish you well.

We are not going to attend the convention this year because we just had not 1 but 2 grandbabies in the last few months! To say we are over the moon in love would be an understatement! Convention will be there again for us, just not this year. I am so proud of all the TEXAS people and kids that are planning to attend Reno this year. You make us proud. Again, if you can get to a national convention or a national club show please do! It's a great way to improve your rabbit hobby.

I'm in this hobby for the long run and hope you are too! Good luck at the shows and as always I hope to see you at the show!!!

It's my favorite time of the year! And one of the busiest. We are writing our TRBA articles during October, as we are all preparing for the ARBA Convention. Shows in our area are available almost every weekend starting in November! Get ready!

Our hobby has so much to offer. Why else would we do all the hard, furry, and stinky chores that are necessary when raising rabbits! I have to say out loud that I have made fun and lasting friendships with the rabbit breeders all over our country. This group of people come together to have fun, share rabbit grief, celebrate non-rabbit life events, and pull together to support friends with the challenges that come with life.

Our TRBA State Show Committee has recently met to review and update planning of our 2023 show. It will be here before you know it. If you have suggestions for our upcoming state show, please reach out to a board member and offer your ideas, along with your volunteer time for the show. Our BOD will be meeting this fall to discuss planning for our annual membership meeting held every year at our State Show. If you have any questions, or would like to request something for our agenda, now is the time to bring that to the attention of the board.

Thank you for being a part of our club.

Secretary Amber Tondre

Hello! As I write this, I am excited about attending the Convention in just a few short weeks. I always enjoy seeing friends that I usually don't get to see otherwise during the year, as well as making new friends, and I love cheering on my fellow Texans on the show tables. I want to take this opportunity to wish you all the best of luck! I also want to wish our Youth luck in their contests! I can't wait to see how you all do.

Please send me your nominations for both Open and Youth Breeder of the Year postmarked by December 31, 2022. Rules can be found on the website at trba.net under the tab BOTY.

Our Fall show is going to be held December 2-3, 2022. I am looking forward to seeing you all there.

Show secretaries – Here is your reminder that Club Affiliations are due to me by December 31st for next year. The form is on the website under FORMS. Also, I know we have some great shows planned for this coming year. Let's get those sanctions in so we can start promoting them!

As always, I want to remind you that you are welcome to check on your membership with me any time. You must renew your membership within 30 days of expiration or you will start over as a new member, and I hate to see that happen. Also, when you mail me your membership, PLEASE DO NOT MAIL CASH. Mail gets lost, and I would hate for you to lose that money. It is much safer to send me a check or money order.

I am looking forward to seeing you at a show soon!

Treasurer Gay Sparks

Hello to All,

It's almost time for the TRBA Fall Show in Killeen. This show is one of our main sources of profit for our organization. We try to utilize our local judges and resources to keep the costs of the show to a minimum to defray rising costs of shows. In the past, this show was known as our "benefit" show. The judges donated their fees and expenses and all the breed sanctions were donated as well. There were no awards given unless someone or a breed club donated them. Several years ago, the TRBA BOD voted to change it to a regular show and hoped the members still supported it. We hope this tradition continues and we are still able to financially support the show.

It has been a crazy fall for all of us. I know those of you that are preparing for Reno sure do wish the-mother Nature would get back on her meds and stay on them. The temperature changes have not been kind to our animals or members. Hopefully we are on the downhill side of those 90+ degree days. I am ready for fall weather.

The first quarter financials are included in this issue. I am in the process of converting to an updated version of QuickBooks and it has not been fun. With computer issues and file conversions, it has been a challenge to keep up. The report shows a loss of $7950.45 because we had expenditures for State Show before we had entry deposits. Rest assured we are still in great financial shape and we have a stable balance of accounts.

Congratulations to our TRBA scholarship winners: Kellie Tondre, Kaylie Garrett, Kelsie Klaus, Rachel Wills, and Kelly Terry. These youth have excelled not only in rabbits but in their academics as well. Next time you see them, tell them how proud we are of their accomplishments.

If this issue goes out before Reno, good luck to all the participants. If it goes out after the show, congratulations to all the winners. Be safe and have a great trip.

Keep those that have lost loved ones in your prayers and pray for our troops that protect us.

Director Katie Finch

Today, I looked back on some photos from 4 years ago - right after we got our first starter bunnies. Looking at the excitement and glee on my kids' faces was and still is priceless. They've grown significantly over the last 4 years (how did one get taller than me!?) and have learned far more than I ever expected as we've immersed ourselves into this hobby. Something that stands out as I reflect on our time in the ARBA world, is the people we've encountered. We've met amazing friends from across the country - and have met some that we prefer to greet with a passing wave and continue about our days.

But as I think specifically about those who have made a positive impact, what stands out to me the most is the individuals who are in this for nothing more than to improve the hobby - not only with the rabbits themselves, but in the relationships and encouragement that is provided along the way. Having your child say, "I hope ______ wins Best in Show!" - and MEAN it, is remarkable. Having another breeder allow your family to have first pick on a litter (or litters!) is a phenomenal honor. We all enjoy a big win, but having meaningful relationships far outweighs any trophy someone can receive.

My tidbit of the quarter is to encourage you to find a way to build someone up within this hobby over the next few months. This doesn't have to be extravagant or public, but the rabbit community as a whole benefits when we each focus outward. If you see a show struggling, see what you can do to jump in and lend a hand. If you see someone discouraged, consider what you would appreciate in the same situation and attempt to fill the gap. I'm not asking you to be a doormat by any means - but everyone needs a bit of a boost at some point. If you are at the point of needing that boost, don't be afraid to reach out and let people know of a need. Many of us will do what we can and are happy to help!

Director Beth Manglberger-Hughes

Good evening everyone,

As I sit here reflecting on the contagious, great rabbit habit that we all have in common, some things come to mind.

I think first and foremost is the friendships we are able to build because of the many hours we spend together chatting and working beside each other. Many of us only have the opportunity of seeing each other 5 to 10 times a year. But in reality, that may be more than we see some of our own family. So let's take time to introduce ourselves and learn more about our rabbit family members.

Second, I want to thank our TRBA officers and directors as well as other club boards for all the hours of sacrifice that you put in to putting on shows. Some of you are working a show at least 3 weekends a month and I know you don't get enough recognition. That does not include the weeks of preparation ahead of time. I know what it takes and I thank you again.

Lastly, we survived the summer and I hope you have lots of does bred and are looking forward to a productive winter. Babies in the boxes means meat pen shows in January and February and lots of juniors to pick from next spring. I get excited about the opportunity to go through new show prospects.

So, I hope you can remember to meet someone new at a show, thank the show committee, and fill those nest boxes. Until we see each other again, enjoy your bunnies.

Director John Terry

With county shows and major shows coming up. It is an ongoing problem with getting the correct information out there. You can preach over and over about the value of the standard of Perfection, but it seems to go in one ear and out the other until someone they know get taken advantage of. If we can bring in a few new kids with good information from trustworthy breeders, we will preserve our club into the next generation. There are tons of articles on how to get good animals. But let's talk about how not to get scammed when looking for your next 4 h project.

The first thing I would like to go through is the money part. You will first have to decide how much your budget is. Rabbits are priced from pet grade for $35 to preliminary show stock between $100-$150. Serious contenders will be $200 and up. Don't expect to get a serious contender without paying the show stock price or greater. Don't be fooled by the price and the term grand champion either. The term grand champion also has two definitions. (Grand champion rabbit under ARBA is winning three classes with at least 5 animals and 3 exhibitors. Grand champion at a county show just means it was the best animal that day. I would almost always take grand champion in ARBA standards any day.

But back to the price. Just because the animal has a show contender price tag doesn't mean it is what it seems. You want the seller to prove that this animal is worth the money. The seller can do that by showing you ranking on national sweepstake's standings or show the most recent show reports from an ARBA show they have attended. They don't have to be at the top, but you would like to see them at least on the rankings with some shows attended. Try to stay away from people who post young litters for sale, and they will sell the whole litter. They really don't know what they are selling, and you surely have no clue what you will end up with. You can look on the internet at all of the national club websites, and some of them will show you some information with breeders in your area. Finding someone you can trust to give you solid advice is time consuming; however, it will pay off in the long run.

Next thing, after you have done some research and found a breeder who you are comfortable with, it is time to decide what animal you want to get from the breeder of your choice. It would be wise to have a standard of perfection with you to glance over as the seller makes his points of why you should purchase this animal. The person you are buying from should not have a problem with discussing the rabbits with a standard. You show up with your standard in hand with the pages ear marked for the breed you are looking to buy, and the scammers will get nervous. They want you to be ignorant and will tell you what ever they can to make a sale. They normally cannot back it up in the standard. It is all about knowing more and asking questions that can be confirmed with the standard. If your questions can't be answered, then it's obvious that these are not the breeders to buy from. They cannot offer any guidance that you will need in the upcoming months. So, run. Lol. This is like car shopping. If you don't like the animal the seller is showing you, something just doesn't seem right with the info the seller is giving you, or it doesn't match with the knowledge you have from reading up on the breed, then walk away. Sometimes you have to go to a couple breeders before you find what your looking for. Don't rely on dumb luck. Do your research. Hope this has been helpful and looking forward—to seeing y'all at the show table.

Director Suzanne Hemsath

Hello TRBA members.

As of this writing I am gearing up for the long trip to Reno, NV for the ARBA Convention. I hope that everyone attending has a safe and fun Convention and that in the next report we can talk about all the experiences from the Texas crew. I know the kids have been studying hard to represent both Texas and District 4 well in the youth contests. Thank you to the TRBA youth committee for supporting the kids and honoring each of them with their show jackets.

Thinking of youth, please remember that the youth are the future of our hobby. If they lose interest in breeding and exhibiting rabbits and cavies, then the hobby will cease to exist. Please think about this when you are approached by the youth to purchase animals. I am amazed at the number of animals that are being marketed at this time to 4-H and FFA members as show stock when they are clearly not show quality animals or have disqualifications. An unaware youth may purchase an animal like that only to become discouraged soon after and leave the hobby with a bad taste in their mouth. Right now, many families are looking for show animals for the upcoming show seasons. Let's do our best to promote each of our breeds by offering better stock to the youth.

The fall and winter show season will be a busy one following the Convention with multiple shows per month throughout the state. I hope to meet more TRBA members at all the shows and cannot wait to see all the new prospects on the tables. Please be sure to support these clubs by attending the shows and volunteering to help if they need it. You can learn so much by listening to the judges and writing comments for them, and on the positive side this is a job where no experience is necessary as many judges are willing to teach you if you are willing to volunteer.

Until next time, keep grooming your show stock and breeding the rest so your boxes stay full for the spring shows.

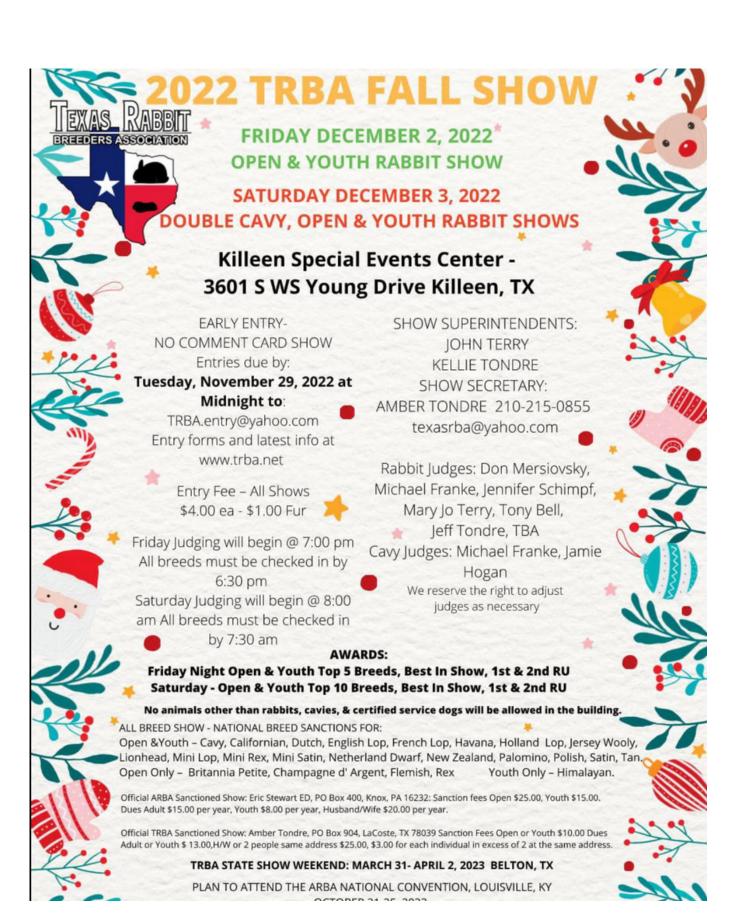

Thank You!

To the people of the TRBA,

Thank you so much for giving me the opportunity to earn this scholarship and choosing me. I could not be more grateful. This scholarship will allow me to get all of my school materials and make sure I can live comfortably on my own in college. The TRBA does so much for so many people. This organization starts so many new breeders in Texas out to begin their long journey of rabbit breeding and showing. I could never stop being grateful for being given the opportunities I have had. It has taught me so much over the years I have been a part of it. I've learned responsibility, hard-work, and my ability to communicate with others has greatly improved. I've loved getting to see myself grow throughout the years of being a part of the rabbit breeding community. I have also been blessed with the opportunities to mentor others and see them get better too. I seriously cannot be more grateful to have been given the opportunity to be a part of this amazing, family-like community. I hope to see how much this organization has grown after my time in college and look forward to seeing the many years of growth from the youth breeders in the rabbit community.

Once again, thank you so much for granting me this scholarship and so many opportunities over the years. I look forward to many more years of treasuring my time spent within this fantastic world of rabbits.

With gratitude, Kaylee Garrett

TRBA Youth Commitee

Team Texas had 22 youth competing in Reno this year. Results will be in the next newsletter as our article deadline is before we leave. The Texas RBA Youth Committee has several fundraising events coming up at the AARC Black Friday and TRBA shows. Consider participating in contests, playing Rabbit Bingo, and enjoying some delicious holiday treats. There is something for everyone. All proceeds will go towards 2023 State Show Royalty/Youth Awards and the 100th ARBA Convention (Louisville) Team Texas attendees. We will also need some volunteers and animal donors for these events. If you can help, let me know at youthco.texasrba@gmail.com

TRBA ROYALTY APPLICATION

APPLICATION TIPS

This information is presented in order for applicants to take best advantage of the application platform to express themselves and their project. This is not an all-inclusive list of tips, nor is it intended to be a list of requirements, though some of these tips are designed to help applicants understand the specific requirements necessary to create a fair and manageable contest.

BASIC FORMATTING

FONT: Several most popular (and readable) fonts include: Arial, Calibri, Tahoma, Times New Roman and Verdana. Using one of these will help make the application more readable.

FONT SIZE: Business standards, as well as these contests, use 10-point or 12-point type.

PAGE MARGINGS: Margins should be between ½inch and 1½inches, with the most common size being 1 inch.

STYLE: The indiscriminate use and overuse of font styles (bold, italic, underline, etc.) serves to diminish your writing. Some use can be helpful, but be careful only to use it when necessary.

QUESTIONS: Make sure you copy the question above your answer. It reminds the scorers of what you have been asked.

OTHER TIPS

DEADLINES: Pay attention to deadlines. Late applications will sabotage your effort.

MAILING APPLICATIONS: Do not send your applications in report covers or on paper that will not scan well. All applications will be scanned to scorers. Do not send CERTIFIED MAIL, as this may result in the application not being delivered. Previous applications sent as "certified" were left at the local post office without notification of needing to be picked up.

READ THE QUESTIONS: Make sure you answer the question asked! You can talk about other things as well, but the most common error is not answering the questions asked.

CLARITY: Be clear and concise. Answer the question fully, but do not rely on an unnecessary volume of words to make the point that you want to make just to fill up space for an answer to one of the questions you have been asked, like this tip is doing! Don't use two lines if only one is needed.

GRAMMAR: Using good grammar and spelling tells the judge you are serious and careful. Ask a teacher or other adult to help you proofread your application.

ORDER OF QUESTIONS: Occasionally, the order of questions will change from year to year. Make sure you use the current year's questions. It is always helpful to start with your application from last year, but make sure you properly edit for the current year.

PHOTOS: Pictures tell a lot about you and your project. Select them carefully and size them appropriately to tell the story. Include captions so the judges know what they are looking at and why. However, not all answers will lend themselves to being helped by a picture. Concise use of pictures can be just as important as concise use of language. Remember to include a physical self-portrait (similar to a school photo) that is a component of your score and will be included on royalty posters.

ACCURATE INFORMATION: Honesty is, as always, the best policy. Be mindful of the fact that scorers, while remaining anonymous, may be able to verify the claims made in your application. You do not want to get caught embellishing your activities or accomplishments.

SCORING: There will be two royalty graders for each division. They are provided with a rubric modeled after the points spread of ARBA royalty and are informed to provide constructive feedback. Please remember that the applications are one component of the royalty contest. The grand total score of all components determines the Royalty winner.

Note: This page is not required to be included with your submission.
